PRESS RELEASE

Garan Luow Miller Law Firm Announces New Hire To Expand Estate Planning Practice

LANSING – March 30, 2006 – Garan Luow Miller, with offices throughout Michigan, announces it is expanding its areas of practice with the hiring of attorney Thomas A. Doyle. He will operate out of the firm's Lansing office, and serve as the director of the Estate Planning and Settlement Group.

Mr. Doyle is an estate planning and settlement attorney who focuses on the legal, practical and tax issues that must be considered when creating an effective estate plan. He is the author of an informational video, "How to Avoid the Six Most Common Estate Planning Mistakes," and has been featured in newspapers and television as an expert on estate planning and probate issues. He has been an invited estate planning guest speaker for a number of Corporations and non-profit institutions, such as Merrill Lynch, American Express, University Club of Michigan State University, East Lansing Hannah Senior Center, and many churches, Credit Unions and financial planners throughout Michigan.

Previously, Mr. Doyle was in private practice in Lansing.

Mr. Doyle is a member of the State Bar of Michigan and the Ingham County Bar Association. He earned his J.D. from Thomas M. Cooley Law School in Lansing and his undergraduate degree from Aquinas College in Grand Rapids.

Garan Luow Miller, P.C. is a full-service law firm founded in 1948 with offices throughout Michigan. Areas of practice are diverse and include civil litigation defense in municipal law, intellectual property, corporate law, admiralty workers' compensation, auto no-fault and real estate transactions.
