

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY PRACTICE GROUP

The Intellectual Property (IP) Practice Group combines the skills of experienced litigation and transaction lawyers to provide a full range of IP services.

For more than fifty years, Garan Lucow Miller, PC has provided its clients with high quality and effective representation. The Intellectual Property Practice extends our firm's general commercial-related practice and commitment to providing legal representation in all facets of commercial litigation.

Aware of the escalating costs and fees associated with litigation, the Intellectual Property Practice Group offers cost-effective legal services with uncompromising excellence.

We assist our clients by:

- Defending trademark, trade dress and copyright infringement actions
- Protecting intellectual property rights by filing suit against those individuals or entities infringing on our client's proprietary work
- Researching and filing trademark, trade dress and copyright applications
- Advising with regard to trade secret issues, such as those arising from termination of employees; employees leaving; or through the sale or merger of business entities
- Reviewing and generating confidentiality, non-disclosure or non-compete clauses

Representative clients for Intellectual Property matters include United Temperature Services - Citizens Insurance Company; The Wildside, Inc. - The Hartford; Shrink Wrap International, Inc. - Citizens Insurance Company; Mackinac Island Creamery - Citizens Insurance Company; Lake County Convention & Visitors Bureau - SAFECO Insurance Company; Lion Trading, Inc. - Peerless Insurance Company; Classic Auto Parts, Inc. - Farmers Insurance.
